Raahgiri Day is a street event which provides citizens with the opportunity to reclaim their streets, connect with their community, celebrate their city and therefore reclaim their lives. An idea which is modelled after an event named 'Ciclovía' in Bogota and was combined with a word 'giri' which promotes it as a movement for reclaiming 'raah', which means path by the pedestrians.

Concept

A day is dedicated to inviting people on those streets that are overpowered by cars and making them experience their streets with activities like cycling, walking, and performing arts. Raahgiri Day is an open street event carrying the dialogue of reclaiming streets for people since 2013. It has been organized daily, fortnightly, monthly, and occasionally, where vehicles are restricted, allowing only pedestrians and cyclists to safely using the space.
